CRISP SPEAKER

The contest in the House Demo eratic caucus was brought to a close last night by the election of Hon. Chas. F. Crisp, of Georgia, Speaker; James Kerr, of Pennsylvania, Clerk; ex-Congressman Samuel S. Yoder, of their offering was made in good faith Ohio, Sargeant-at-arms; and ex-Con- and best wishes for our success .gressman Charles H. Turner, of New sell, of Loudoun, is now at work York, Doorkeeper.

Congress convened yesterday. Congressman Wilson voted for Mills for speaker. Dom Pedro, ex-Emperor of Brazil, died in Paris last Friday.

Mr. Cleveland expressed himself as favorable to the selection of Hon. Wm. L. Wilson for speaker.

Senator Faulkner has moved to Washington and during the sitting of congress will reside corner 19th and R streets.

Judge Daniel B. Lucas and Mr. J. Fairfax McLaughlin have jointly entered on an original literary workshort sketches of persons, incidents and places that have helped to make or are identified with American history, called the "Hour Glass Series."

A man giving the name of D. H. Wilson obtained admittance to the office of Russell Sage, the millionaire broker, in New York Friday, on the plea of private business, and immediately demanded that $1,200,000 be paid to him by Mr. Sage at once .-Mr. Sage sought to get rid of the man by asking him to call again, when the visitor threw a dynamite bomb against the wall. It exploded with terrific force, wrecking the office and blowing the thrower and three other persons to pieces. Mr. Sage was anything in the Queensware line, slightly injured. Several others were don't forget the Milling store. badly hurt.

A National Bank, capital $100,000, has just been established at Bluefield, Mercer county, this State, with Col. Samuel Walton, well known and highly regarded here, as its president. The Bluefield Exponent refering to this matter says:

"Very able and experienced men have been chosen as officers and directors. Mr, Samuel Walton is pres- show our goods. ident. He has kept himself outside all factions, his position has been one of dignity and fairness, which commends him to consideration. Should be not be made speaker, he must be chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. His thorough knowledge of the tariff question entitles him to this position. Let who ever it may, be speaker, he Let who ever it may, be speaker, he will make a mistake if W. I.. Hon. W. L. Wilson addressed the Carpenters' and Joiners' Union of Charles Town at the Court-house on Monday night, according to appointment. Mr. Thomas Cockrill presided over the meeting and Rev. H. P. Hamill offered prayer. Mr. Wilson -who might have been engaged, like several of his associates in Congressional and party leadership, in "hust ling" for the Speakership-congratulated himself on the opportunity to talk to his people at home and to discus non-political questions. His theme was labor organization. After brief allusion to the history of benevolent and labor organizations of earlier times, he explained the necessity for united action on the part of workingmen in order to meet on an equal footing, and enter without disadvantage into contract with, the great corporations and combinations of capital which have made possible the wonderful changes in industrial life in the past quarter of a century. Mr. Wil- PLENTY OF GOODS son read and approved the objects of the Carpenters' and Joiners' Union, and advised, in concluding his ad-dress, that the additional hours of leisure for which they properly asked should be used for mental improvement, saying that there was no reason why a carpenter should not be as well read as a lawyer or doctor. He further suggested that they should endeavor-even if some self-denial were involved-to lay up something for the future and secure what would give them credit and standing in the community; and eloquently insisted that the man is greater than his work, and that the organization would accomplish its highest aims in elevating its members intellectually, socially and morally. The Charles Town Cornet Band was on hand and played before and after the address .- Free Press.

A few weeks ago a Band was organized at Mannings, and some unscrupulous persons have taken acvantage of the fact and taken to promiscuous begging on the reputation of the Band.

We announce for the protection of those who feel kindly toward us and for the reputation of the Band that no one was authorized to receive aught for us, and that those who have kindly given anything have been victimed to the extent of what they meant for us.

We have selected Thos. J. Dillow (one of the Band) as the one to re-ceive anything kindly offered by the good people for the benefit of the Band, and forbid all others from asking or receiving anything.

To those who have been victimized we tender grateful thanks, believing teaching the boys how to toot. E. B. Johnson,

President of Band.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not set like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

Fagged Out "Last spring I was completely fagged out.
My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BEGOLE, Editor

Enterprise, Belleville, Mich. "I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excel-lentappetite." Ed. Jenkins, Mt. Savage, Md. N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy anything else

A POPULAR FAMILY. JENNIE: "How is it, Kate, that you always seem to 'catch on 'to the last new thing? Do what I may, you always seem to get ahead of me."

KATE: "I don't know: I certainly do not make any exertion in that direction."

JENNIE: "Well, during the last few months, for example, you have taken up painting.

without any teacher; you came to the rescue when Miss Lafarge deserted her Delsarte class so suddenly, and cortainly we are all improving in grace under your instruction; I heard you telling Tommy Eames last evening how his club made mistakes in playing baseball; you seem to be up on all the latest 'fads,' and know just what to do under all circumstances; you entertain beautifully; and in the last month you have improved so in health, owing, you tell me, to your physical culture exercises. Where do you get all of your information from in this little out-of-the way place?—for you never go to the city."

KATE: "Wby, Jennle, you will make mo vain. I have only one source of information, but it is surprising how it meets all wants. I very seldom hear of anything new but what the next few days bring me full information on the subject. Magic? No! Magazine! And a great treasure it is to us all, for it really furnishes the reading for the whole household; father has given up his magazine that he has taken for years, as he says this one gives more and better information on the subjects of the day; and mother says that it is that that makes her such a famous housekeeper. In fact, we all agree that it is the only really FAMILY magazine published, as we have sent for samples of all of them, and find that one is all for men, another all for women, and another for children only, while this one sits every one of us; so we only need to take one instead of several, and that is where the econemy comes in, for it is only $2.00 a year. Perhaps you think I am too lavish in my praise; but I will let you see ours, or, better still, send 10 cents to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a sample copy, and I shall always consider that I have done you a great favor; and may be you will be cutting us out, as you say we have the reputation of being the best informed family in town. If that be so, it is Demorest's Family Magazine that does it."
